Flower alchemist Camilla Blossom entered a profound rebirthing process in 1994 after the homebirth of her son. Flower essences became her primary medicine to reclaim and awaken her divine feminine and mothering nature.

Since 2000, Camilla has been creating essences with the Devas of the Columbia River Gorge (Washington, Oregon) and Hawaii. Her flower essences and aromatherapy products enjoy an international following.

Camilla is an Intuitive, Flower Essence Practitioner/Educator, Reiki Master, Vibrational Healer & Certified Aromatherapist. She is author of "Listening to the Wildflowers: A Flower Whisperer's Guide to the Columbia River Gorge Flower Essences" and has taught at Birthingway College of Midwifery, New Renaissance (Portland, Oregon), East West (Seattle) and many other venues.
